

Code Of Ethics of the California Naturopathic Association

1. First Do No Harm (Primum Non Nocere)

Practice non-invasive and non toxic care helping the body to restore itself.

2. Practice the Healing Power of Nature (Vis Medicatrix Naturae)

Use all of the natural substances that nature has provided us for healing. Within our scope of practice.

3. Identify and Treat the Causes (Tolle Causam)

Promise to search within Body, Mind and Spirit to find the root of all imbalance.

4. Naturopath as teacher (Docere)

Promise to educate and empower for growth

5. Treat the Whole Person

Promise not to segregate the body but asses, Physical Mental and Emotional Imbalance as all parts of one whole.

6. Practice Prevention

Promoting health before treating dysfunction

7. Practice Professionalism and Respect

Adopting appropriation of boundaries for ourselves and others in our care.

I hereby promise to abide by and not break this code of ethics of the CNA and all the California Naturopaths that came before me that taught this great philosophy.
